Smy Tonnara di Bonagia

A charming place with ages of history

Bonagia (Sicily) _ Italy

Overlooking the coast of Bonagia, where the Mediterranean Sea and the Tyrrhenian Sea come together, a few kilometres from San Vito lo Capo and Erice is located our La Tonnara di Bonnagia, a beautiful complex of rooms and apartments located directly on the private beach, surrounded by the magnificent nature reserves of western Sicily.

Smy La Tonnara di Bonagia is in an ancient 17th century tuna trap, where traditional fishermen, known as "tonnarotti", used to return with fresh tuna after an intense day of fishing on the high seas. The furniture and design of the spaces were inspired by this world, giving life to an environment where marine elements are combined with Majolica art, works of pottery hand painted by the local inhabitants.

The complex has all the facilities and services to make your stay a relaxing experience that only the sea can give: a restaurant with à la carte menu, a swimming pool with a wonderful view of the coast, a museum tower, tennis courts and soccer, lounge bar, water activities, tours in the nature reserves of Sicily, excursions to the Egadi Islands and the main historical sites.
